D E D I C A T I O N

OVER THE PATH OF OUR HIGH SCHOOL CAREERS, YOU HAVE GUIDED US WITH UNFAILING EFFORTS AND INDISPENSABLE ASSISTANCE IN HELPING US TO FIND OUR ROADS TO HAPPINESS. IN GRATEFUL ACKNOWLEDGEMENT, WE, THE CLASS OF 1941, DEDICATE OUR YEARBOOK TO YOU, OUR SPONSORS.

MESSAGE FROM MR. HOFFMAN:

After religion and education, roads have been one of the great contributing factors to the welfare and happiness of people.

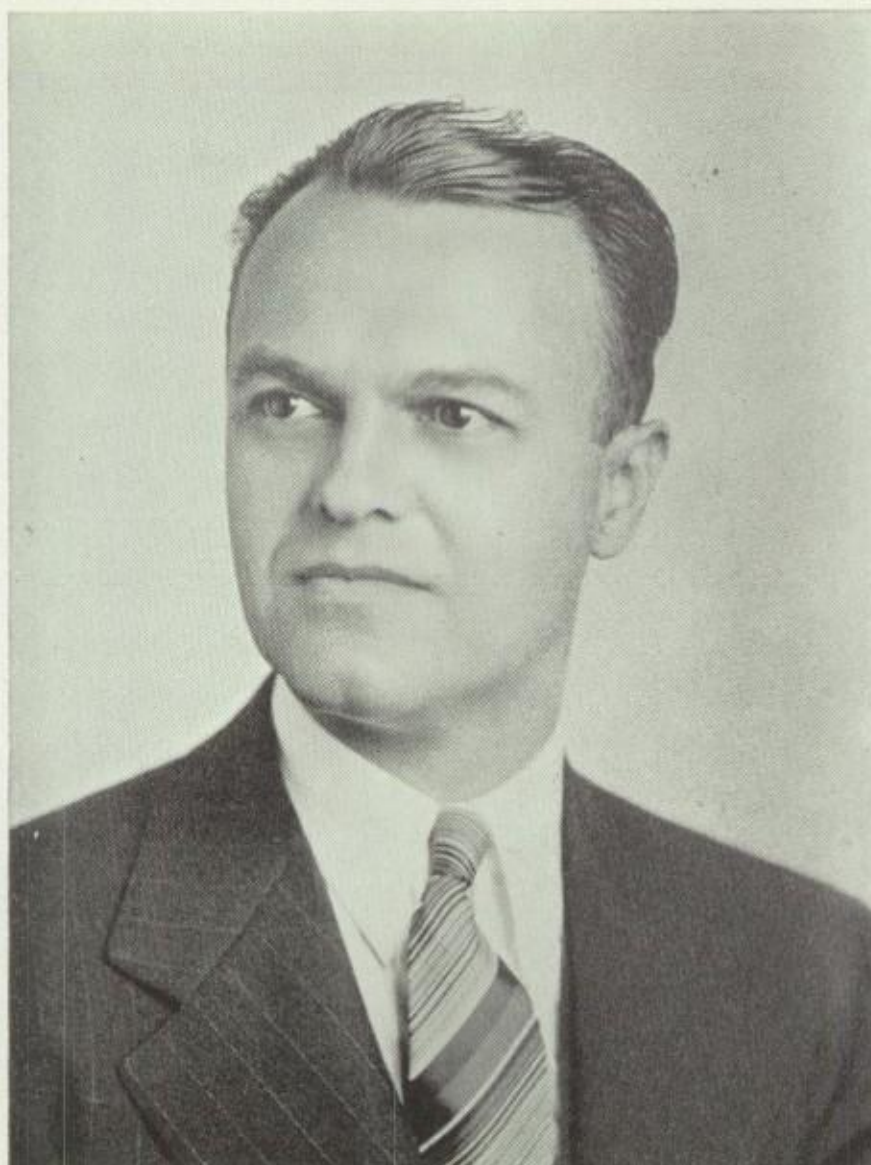

The universe is a grand road, a symbol of the constructiveness, perseverance, and industry of our forbears. From the small narrow foot trail at the dawn of civilization, the accumulated knowledge of the human race has developed a super-highway leading into a future which may become better than any achievements thus far attained.

In every person's life pilgrimage there is the hope of a "dream highway" that will lead to a life's ambition. Members of the class of 1941, as you travel along your "dream highway" there will be many turns and crossroads where your decisions will be the final test of what you have learned during your school career. The road may become rough, the load heavy, and there may be barricades; but set your soul upon your goal and nothing shall turn you back.

Along this journey, there will be inns and resting places which you will recognize as your leisure time. A true sense of values during these re-creation periods will to a great degree bring you the happiness that you desire.

We as sponsors have enjoyed our experiences with you. In these doubtful days for our "way of life", remember that democracy draws its vitality from each individual citizen, so give responsible direction to your life's journey.

WE HONOR MR. FREES

Mr. Walter S. Frees will retire this June, after having completed twenty-three years of loyal service to Reading High School. He has served the school district since 1918 in the capacity of a teacher of printing and has had the distinction of being head of the Practical Arts Department. Most of the printing for school activities has come under his capable supervision.

Mr. Frees was born in Reading and graduated from Reading High School in the Class of 1890. He continued his education at the University of Pennsylvania, Penn State College, and Columbia University. In addition to his school work, Mr. Frees has participated in outside affairs. He has done work at St. Mary's Church, and is a member of the Riverside Fire Company and of the Typographical Union. The entire student body and faculty join in appreciation of his faithfulness and loyalty and wish him happiness in the future.

SENIORS

We begin our journey with the great Metropolis of New York City, in which we see thousands of people of many different types and personalities: intellectual, quiet, cheerful, sincere, active, co-operative, versatile. Likewise the Senior Class of Reading Senior High School is made up of a great many students of various temperaments. For this reason, we begin our yearbook with the Senior section, symbolic of the first stage of our journey, New York City.

CLASS OFFICERS

Here they are, the pilots of our journey through the inspiring years at R. H. S.! They have diligently performed their duties as officers of our class and have guided us safely along our pilgrimage.

James Klemmer, (extreme right) our president, quarterbacked our football team in its most successful years since 1913. In his quiet way, he has performed the duties of his office faithfully. A man's man, Jim is highly respected and looked up to by his teammates and friends. Interested in all sports, he is an all around swell fellow—and noted for his extraordinary blue eyes.

James Bunn, our president's assistant, is a knight of the basketball court. Long, lanky, and full of fun—that's Jimmy. When he is engaged in school activities, he is not indulging in his favorite pastime of sleeping. The roar of the press and the smell of printer's ink lure him.

Florence Dalack (2nd left) has efficiently handled our class documents for three years. She is known to everyone for her sparkling personality and wit, not to mention her excellent swimming record. Five feet, two inches, brown eyes, and a luscious summer tan typify her to a T. Well-versed in all subjects, Flip is liked by everyone.

Gloria Jeffries, our vivacious little money manager, is quite the student. Her tiny turned-up nose and flashing brown eyes speak for themselves. In addition to performing innumerable services for her class, this efficient worker is as versatile as they come. Small, dark, and effervescent, Jeff is everybody's favorite.

We, the Class of '41, are grateful for the faithful services of our class officers and heartily extend our best wishes to them!

The twelfth grade executive committee is deserving of recognition since it has capably aided the class officers in the fulfillment of all the duties of the senior class. This committee is composed of a representative of each senior home room. Among its various duties were the collecting and recording of the class dues, the taking of orders for name cards and commencement announcements, the making of plans for the class trip, and the distributing of class hats. It was through the medium of the executive committee members that the class was informed of the projects discussed with the class sponsors, Mr. Hoffman, Miss Schmidt, and Mr. Shott, at the meetings. Reports were made in the homerooms after each meeting. Theirs was an important task and they have performed it faithfully.

ARXALMA

Here we are, the Arxalma Staff, hard at work planning the itinerary of our trip. The slave drivers (editors to you) "Susie" and "Chic" are seated in the foreground approving our work while our competent business manager, "Jeff", ponders over her figures. The athletic committee, namely Skinny, Al, and Paul, racked their brains in an effort to pay homage to Reading High's athletic stars. To their left and in deep thought is the ever-industrious senior committee, Roz, Marcia, Millie, Marie, Chris, and Mary, who assembled all the interesting tid-bits about you Seniors. Huddled together at the right is our talented art staff, Dick, Berny, Stanley, Barbara, and Kitty, who produced the masterpieces adorning the pages of the book. Way back in the corner is the organizations committee, Jeanne, Jane, Carmena, and Dottie. Irma, the "Lone Ranger", concocted the features, and Jane was forced to carry on alone in the faculty section since Graycie Dellet migrated to California.

The combined and concentrated efforts of these committees have resulted in the publication of the '41 Arxalma. We hope you like it.

Purpose: To prepare the script of the graduation pageant.

ACTIVITIES

The crowing of the Apple Blossom Queen in Shenandoah! The entire valley is aglow with fame and alive with activity. Every one is preparing for the one big event. Not so at Reading High School. The pupils of this school have an almost innumerable number of activities, including organizations, music, and clubs from which to choose in order that he might further his special interest.

ORGANIZATIONS

A student of Reading Senior High School has the privilege of entering its numerous organizations in several ways. He may join them voluntarily; he may be elected to them by his classmates; or because of his outstanding qualities, he may be appointed by the faculty to enter them.

An organization usually promotes some good to the individual student, to the student body, or to the school as a whole; and, at the same time, it teaches its members to be both leaders and good followers.

A better understanding between teachers and students is also accomplished by our organizations.

Purpose: To promote a democratic school government.

MUSIC

Among the highlights of Reading Senior High School are the music organizations. State-wide recognition has been ours because of this department which offers to a student innumerable opportunities to develop himself musically.

For the instrumentalist the orchestras and bands provide great pleasure. The vocalist can pursue his musical interests in the A Cappella Choir, choruses, quartets, octets, and glee clubs.

"Music hath charms to soothe the savage breast" is certainly true when applied to Reading Senior High School musical organizations.

Best of

CLUBS

"All work and no play makes Jack a dull boy"; for this reason Reading Senior High School has tried to make the student's life interesting and well-rounded. The wide range of clubs—gymnastics, dramatics, science, art, dressmaking, and many others—makes selection far from difficult.

Every Tuesday, these clubs meet and further the student in his high school course or in his special interests. Besides engaging in activities of the school, many of these clubs also participate in outside activities.

Many thanks are due the faculty who sponsor these clubs.

ATHLETICS

We travel westward now to witness a genuine rodeo in which sun-tanned spirited cowboys, miracles of muscle, display their sportsmanship and strength in feats of daring—roping, tying, herding. So it is here at Reading High. Our athletes, our own spirited sportsmen and women, display their strength on the football field, the basketball court, the baseball diamond. Athletics, ever a major part of our school, is the making of many a fine young American.

Varsity Football

Smashing its way to football fame, the 1940-41 Reading High Football Team rolled up a record and reputation excelled only by our 1913 powerhouse. Winning 8, tying 1, and losing 1, the Knights had foes quaking and fans cheering. We shall long remember such stars and such exciting moments as are described on the following pages.

SEPT. 21—

READING VS. HERSHEY INDUSTRIAL (6-0)

A powerful Reading High team opened its season with a moral defeat at the hands of an underrated Hershey team. The Red and Black team rolled off to a smashing beginning by getting a touchdown in the first 4 minutes. From then on, however, Reading was an outplayed team. Especially in the second half, Hershey, led by its flashy back, Hummer, romped toward our goal time and again only to be pushed back with inches to go by Missbach and Klemmer.

It was Szymanski for Reading who copped the hero's laurels as he scored our only touchdown and passed, ran, and kicked Reading to victory. His splendid defense also promised that we should hear much from Joe this season. Yes, it was a greatly inspired Hershey team that met Reading and we are plenty thankful that we beat them, if only by 6-0.

SEPT. 28—

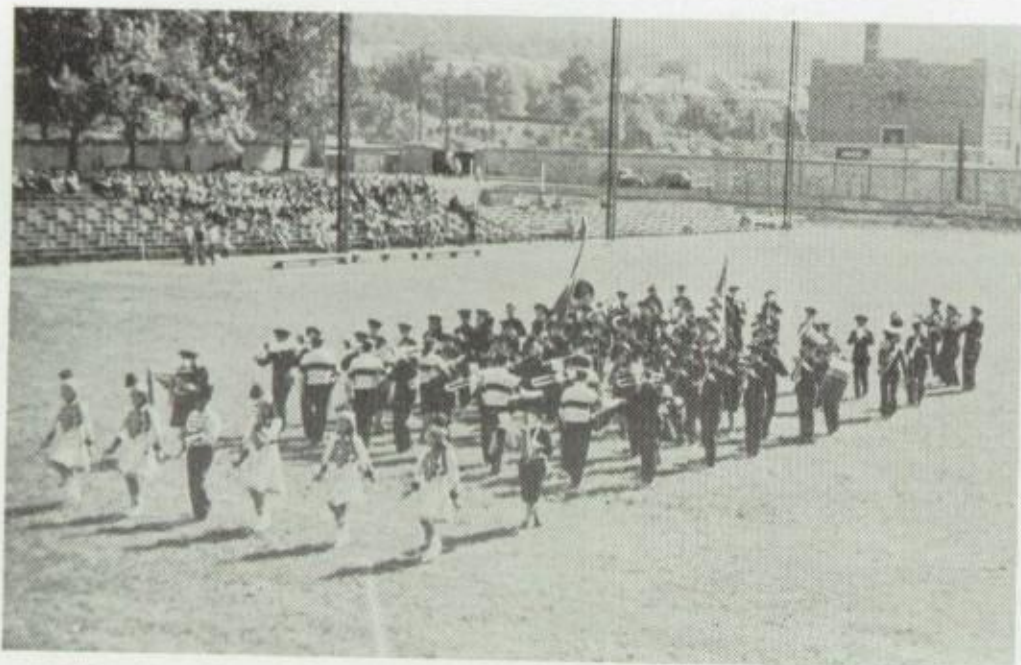

READING VS. PATTON TRADE (54-0)

Bouncing back from the moral defeat of the opening game, Reading proceeded to trounce Thomas Patton Trade to the tune of 54-0. The Rockets piled up 330 yards with Eyrich pushing his way over for 3 touchdowns.

It was evident that Coach Rock's boys were holding back their colorful plays because the strong offensive was purely power. Wilbur Souders, a junior prospect, contributed 13 points while Missbach, Ulrich, and lineman Cooper scored one touchdown apiece. Ulrich proved his skill at the extra-point art by kicking 3 balls between the posts. Mattern, Souders, and Missbach also accounted for one each.

Practically the whole Reading squad got a chance at the Traders, but it was our stalwart line that held the opponent's score in the zero column.

OCT. 5—
READING VS. WILLIAM PENN (29-0)

An undefeated, untied, and unscored upon Red Knight team continued on its victory path by pounding a William Penn team to the proverbial pulp. Practically the whole squad joined to set the Tigers back to the tune of 29-0, which is the biggest score we have ever beaten William Penn by.

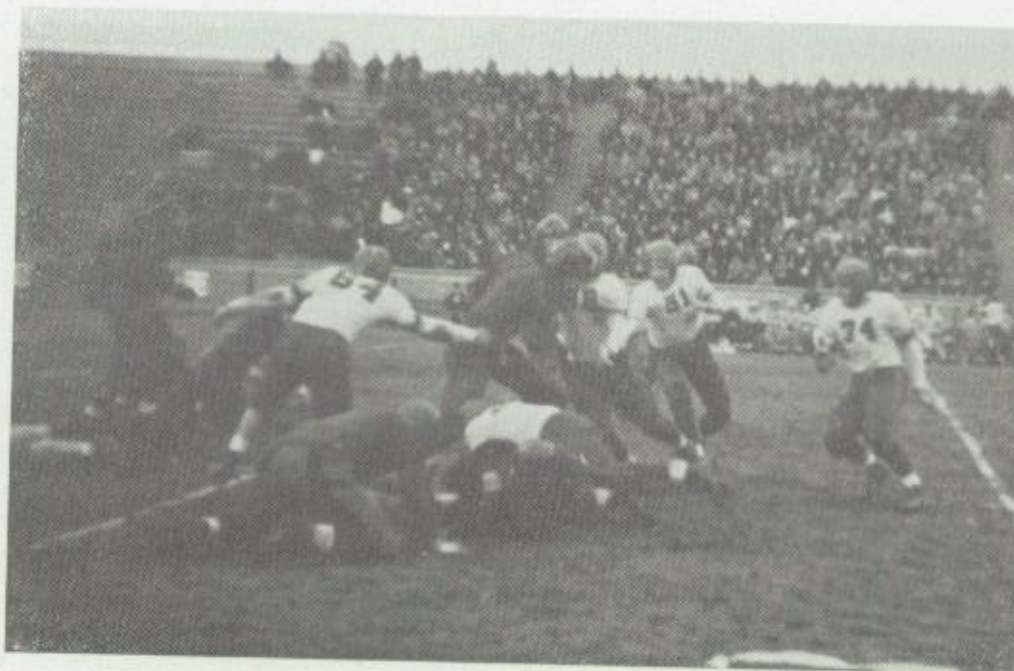

"Ollie" Eyrich continued his habitual gains as he plowed through the Harrisburgers' line, and Ulrich converted those extra points with the greatest of ease. Joe Szymanski pulled the Red Knights out of their one threatening position with a beautiful punt in the first quarter and from then on it was all Reading. Souders, flashy junior, scored one of the touchdowns with a 64 yard run. Our old standbys, Eyrich, Ulrich, and Szymanski were as usual two-footed powerhouses. It was an exciting game, packed with thrills and topped off with victory.

OCT. 12—READING VS. ALLENTOWN (18-0)

Reading really showed what it was made of when it met Allentown. Our powerful defense with Zerbe again shining at center showed the Canaries a solid front. While this powerful bulwark was staving off the attacks of the Canary and Blue, our own Knights pushed across the Allentown goal for three touchdowns to score 18 points.

"Nipper", flashy halfback, shone with his clever footwork and shifty runs. Klemmer again presented a beautiful bit of quarterbacking as he piloted the Knights to victory.

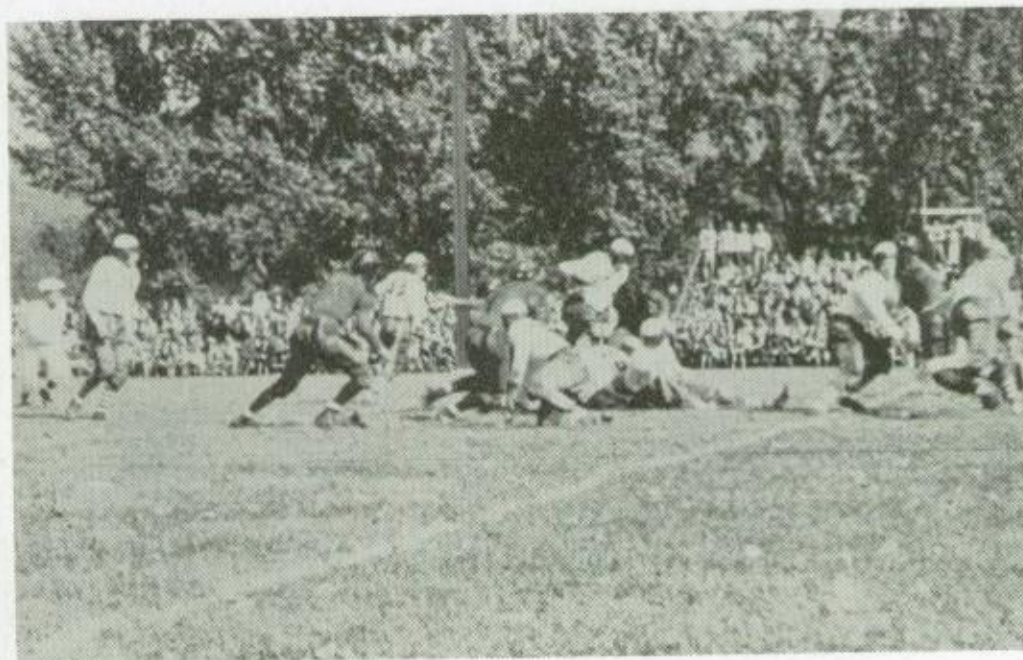

In the first half, Reading found its way across Allentown's goal once and managed to push that pigskin to the one foot line as the half ended. Coming back in the second half to score twice more, the Red and Black warriors downed Allentown and continued on their victorious 1941 campaign.

OCT. 19—READING VS. BETHLEHEM (6-14)

Those Bethlehem boys knew they were in a game when they met Reading High at Liberty Stadium. It was a dream of a game that the Blue and Red team finally won after Captain Achey with the help of Vatz did everything but carry the water bucket. He worked behind a strong line, spearheaded by All-State Mann during the first half when Reading High felt their punch like a trip hammer.

In the second half, tagging along with Eyrich, Ulrich, and Szymanski, Reading came back to threaten in melodramatic style. It was not until after the Red Knights lost the ball on Bethlehem's 0 yard stripe and later recovered, that they pushed over behind Ulrich for our first and only touchdown. Bethlehem's bigger team and greater power finally ended the fray with a score of 14-6 but everyone was satisfied with that hard fought, clean football game.

OCT. 26—READING VS. YORK (0-0)

Reading High's battered Knights met a stiff defense at the hands of the York White Roses. As the two teams, the school bands, and 6,000 fans honored Knute Rockne, a stout-hearted, spirited band of Yorkmen held the Rockets scoreless. An address by Dr. Fink and drilling by our crack marching band started off an exciting but costly afternoon.

During the fray, the R.H.S. machine, hampered by injuries from the Bethlehem game, rolled deep into York territory only to be pushed back from pay dirt each time. The first attempt was smothered after Missbach had completed a pass to Klemmer for a first down on the Roses's 15-yard line. A second monkey wrench gummed up the works when Missbach threw a pass which was intercepted on the York 8 yard line. After these setbacks, a morally defeated but far from outfought Reading team left the field as York rejoiced.

NOV. 2—READING VS. LANCASTER (21-0)

Although Reading jogged off the Lancaster football field on the long end of a 21-0 score, we must admit that it was a costly game. It was during this contest that Joe Szymanski received a broken ankle while trying to throw one of his surefire passes. We like to think that because of this loss the Raiders pushed that score up to 21-0 for good measure.

As for the game itself, Eyrich behind our powerhouse line caused havoc during those 60 minutes at Lancaster. Nipper also accounted for some excitement as Jimmy Klemmer again piloted the team as if it were a perfect machine.

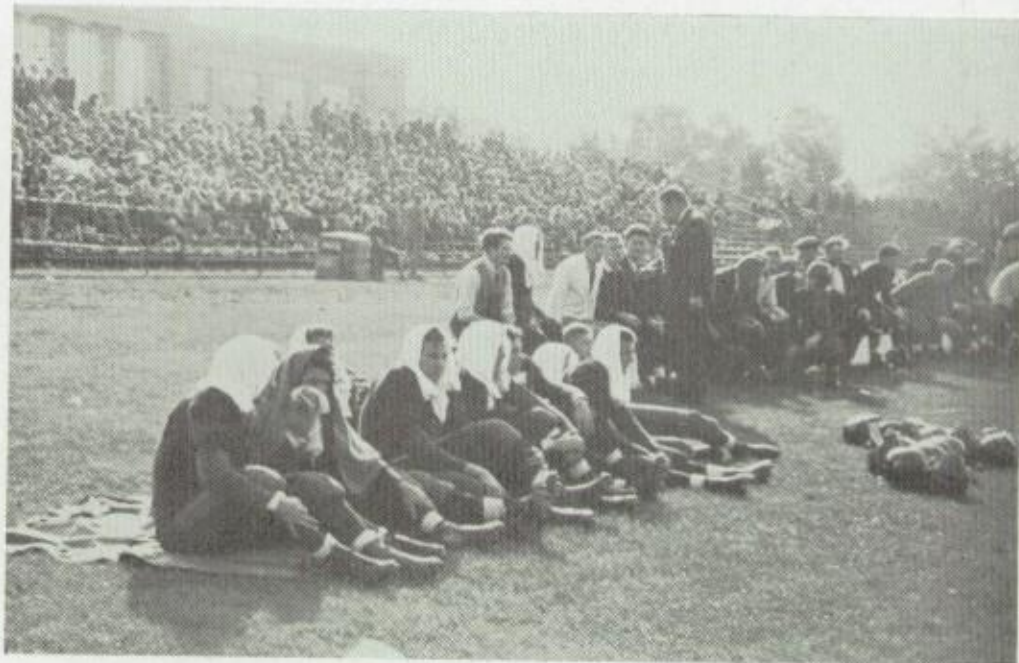

Lancaster's spunky Schneider and Reese put up a valient fight as they tore over that field, but the odds were against them and Reading continued on one of her most successful campaigns in her football history.

NOV. 9—READING VS. LEBANON (34-0)

Lebanon was a beaten team after that fateful Saturday afternoon at Albright Stadium. Seven thousand five hundred fans were there to watch the Reading reserves take over the Lebanon Cedars in royal fashion.

Eyrich, Ulrich, Missbach, and Klemmer pounded the Cedars into submission with a barrage of 5 touchdowns as Ulrich's educated toe accounted for the extra points. The Reading forward wall held the visitors to only five first downs although Hess put up a scrappy battle for Lebanon.

Our reserves did themselves proud as they substituted for the regulars and lost nary a yard as they carried the banner gloriously to an overwhelming victory.

NOV. 16—READING VS. EASTON (13-0)

The '40 Red and Black Football Team proved themselves outstanding by being the only team in 32 years of competition to defeat Easton in their own stadium. Two long runs, one by Eyrich and one by Missbach, turned the trick and brought Easton down to the tune of 13-0.

Although statistics show Easton 6 first downs to Reading's 5, the game was Reading's with the exception of a serious Easton advance which was stopped by Eyrich's interception of Big Jack Rothenhausler's pro pass and Bully's 60 yard gallop to the goal. Because of a wet, slippery field, it was not until the last quarter that Nipper crashed the line and jaunted for 73 more yards to add up the score. Nipper also got off a beautiful 90 yard kick which went out of bounds on Easton's ten.

Our potent line, led by Zerbe, our sensational center, and with stellar aid by Fromuth, Delewski, and Stump, again thwarted a formidable foe in Easton and Rothenhausler.

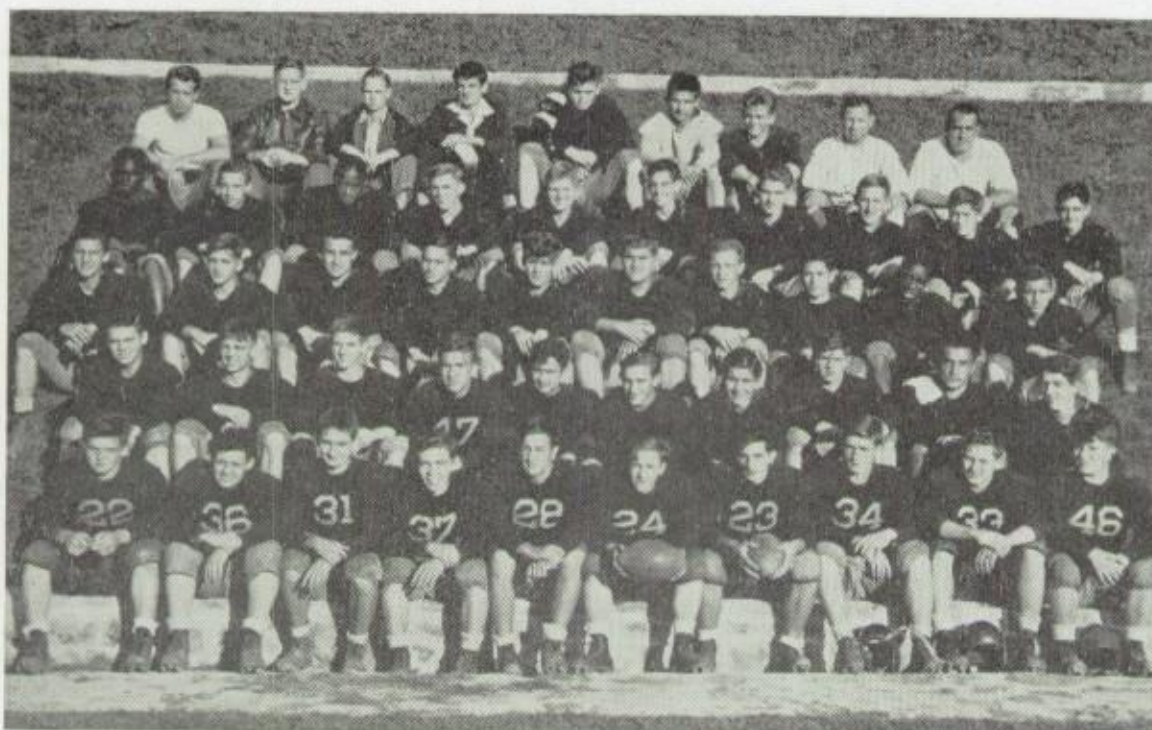

NOV. 23—READING VS. POTTSVILLE (13-6)

Finishing one of the most successful seasons in R.H.S. football history, the Red Raiders bombed Pottsville's Terrors into submission. It was a banner day for Reading as it triumphantly closed its season by defeating Pottsville for the first time in Hal Rock's coaching career at R.H.S.

The game, however, was no walkaway as Tony Ventresca of Pottsville sparked the Terrors with an 80 yard touchdown run. Reading received another jolt when Cooper, stellar lineman, broke his leg. "Nipper" started our score rolling by rambling 52 yards for a first period touchdown. Ulrich took honors for conversions as he continued to put that ball between the uprights. The day brightened, again, when a slick pass from Nipper to Klemmer was carried over for another touchdown. This touchdown was the last in what proved to be the most successful season since 1913.

J. V. FOOTBALL TEAM

A spunky J. V. Football team took to the field this year to gain valuable experience in this game called Football. Running up a score of 1 win, 1 tie and 4 losses, the Baby Rockets did not set the league on fire. They did, however, prove to be the only team to defeat Lancaster this season. Such stars as Claybourn White, who ran 80 and 85 yards for 2 touchdowns on 2 kickoffs in the same game and Brennen and Boltz in our line showed that there's good material for our Varsity next year. Coaches Harris, Horine, and Billinger worked hard with the team and were well satisfied with its performance.

READING VS. WILLIAM PENN (24-33)

A powerful William Penn league-leading team downed Reading 33-24 in their first meeting. The Tigers showed their superiority with Davis, Freedman, and Towe sharing 31 of Penn's markers.

(39-26)

Reading returned the compliment by defeating William Penn in the crucial game of the season. Giles romped up and down that floor to lead a sparkling Reading team to victory.

READING VS. LEBANON (23-19)

An underdog Reading Team turned the tables by defeating the undefeated Lebanon Cedars 23-19. Nipper saved the day with a timely goal and foul to win the game. Stump lead the scoring with 9 points.

(34-30)

Reading High forged its way into first place by defeating Lebanon 34-30 in their second game. A nip and tuck last quarter finally found the Red Knights in the lead paced by Stump again with 13 points.

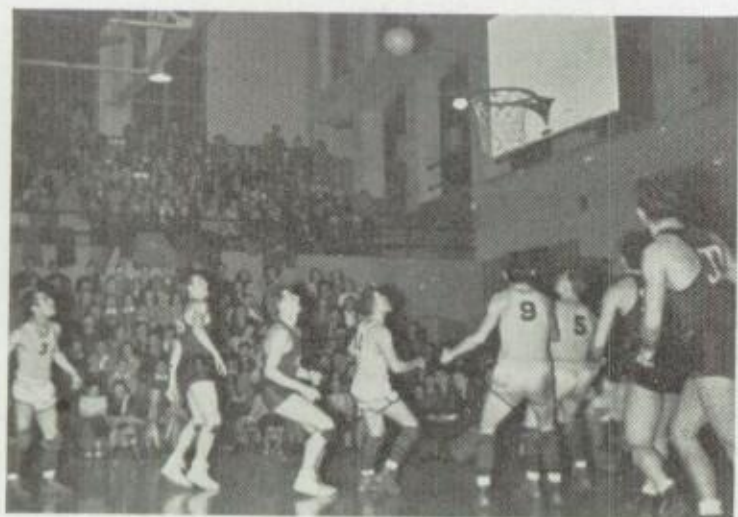

READING VS. STEELTON (46-30)

Reading gave Steelton little chance to win as the Red and Black team continued on their winning streak. "Nipper" Missbach "stole" the ball and the game for 21 points.

(42-27)

At Steelton, Reading pounded its opponents into submission to bring championship hopes still closer. Giles again proved the spark at Steelton's expense.

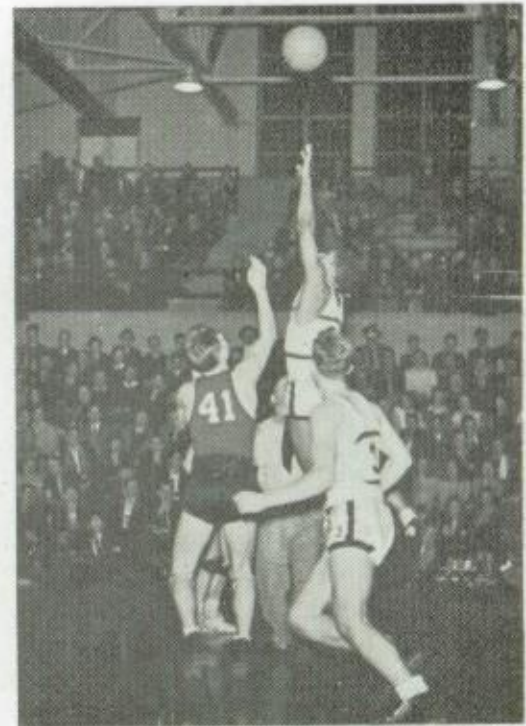

READING VS. YORK (33-35)

The R.H.S. shock troops tasted defeat in their first loop encounter with York, 33-35. It was a heart-breaker with Sophomore Gibbs running wild for York.

(42-27)

In its return game with York, the Red and Black team romped to a 42-27 victory. Giles marked a startling come-back with top point honors.

READING VS. LANCASTER (37-34)

Reading bounded back after its defeat at the hands of the White Roses to down Lancaster, 37-34, using two full team substitutions. Missbach, Lewis, and Stump each netted 4 field goals and some odd fouls.

(47-28)

The Red Knights really headed toward a championship when they beat Lancaster in their second meeting, "Nipper" carried off honors with 20 points to nab the league lead in scoring.

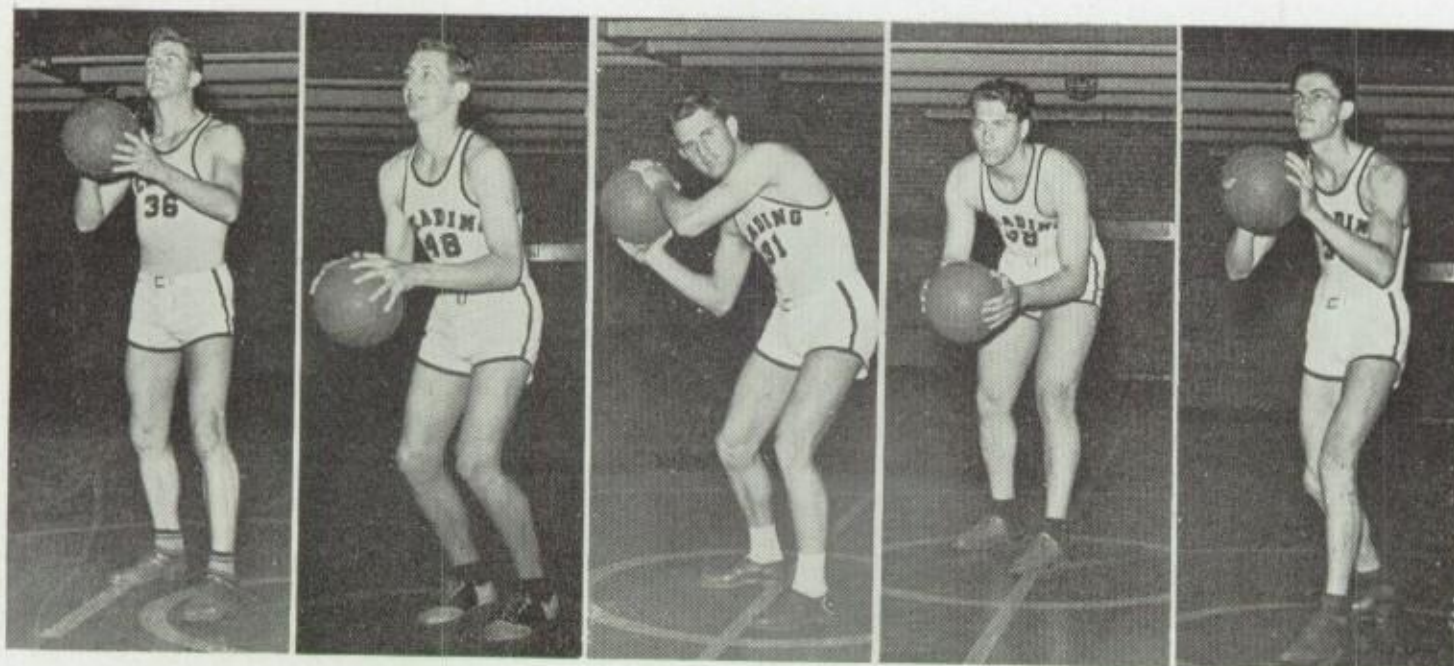

READING VS. JOHN HARRIS (45-36)

Reading tabbed its second straight win in its march on first place at the expense of John Harris, 45-36. "Nipper" was high with 17 points.

(32-31)

For a cellar team, John Harris really gave the Knights a scare when they led in the third quarter score. The Red and Black basketballers closed the season, however, by forging ahead in story book style with Giles scoring high.

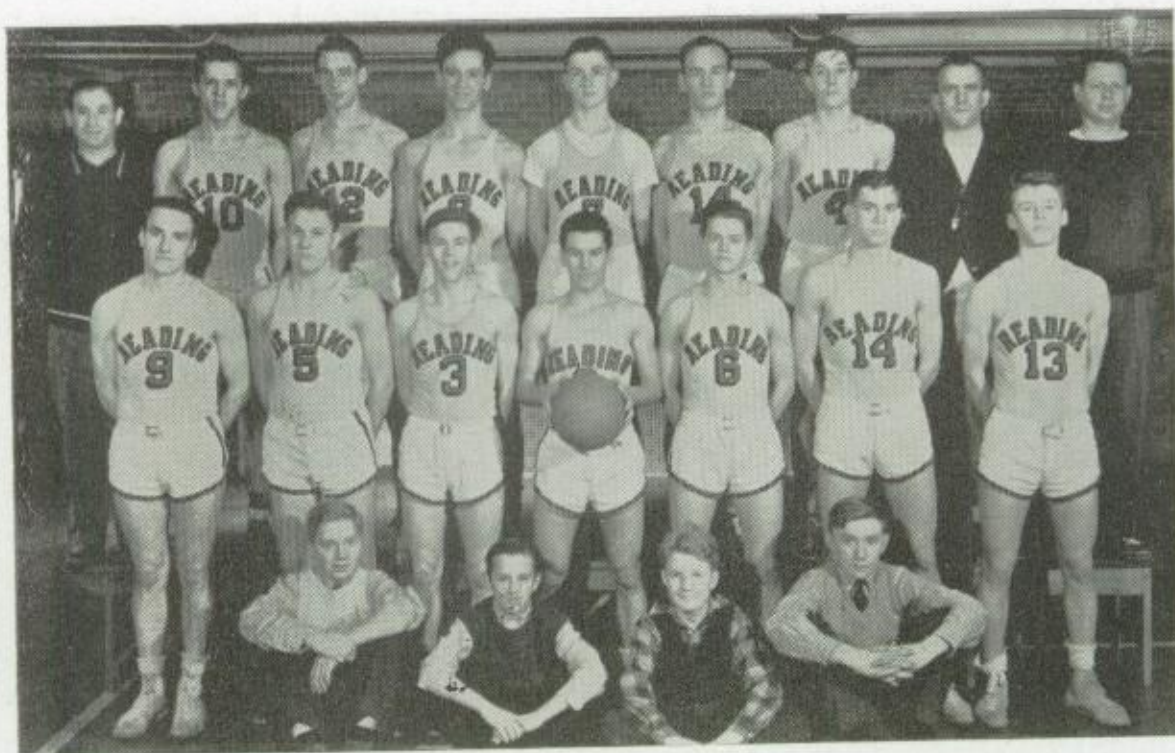

NON-LEAGUE GAMES

In a series of 8 non-league basketball games, Reading High emerged with a record of 6 wins and 2 defeats. Opening against a weak Thomas Patton Trade team, Reading trounced them to the tune of 74-11. Nipper took point honors in that game as well as the Pottstown game which ended, Reading 46, Pottstown 14. Our next non-league fray found the Rockets tasting defeat for the first time to the tune of 37-21 at the hands of a smart Allentown team. Lewis was high scorer of an outplayed Red Knight team. In a return engagement, Reading took revenge for Allentown's victory by stifling the Canaries 41-34 with the help of Giles' 17 points. A close game found the Red and Black team ahead of Hazleton 22-17. Nipper's last minute basket pulled the Allentown game out of the fire with a final score of 31-30. This all-round athlete managed 10 points which was high for our team. At Pottsville, Jimmie Bunn flashed into the limelight with 12 points which did much toward downing the Terrors. Their last non-league game found Reading behind Bethlehem by one point 34-33. It was a heartbreaker to lose.

From this game on, Reading plowed through opponent after opponent to pull itself into first place and the Central Penn Title. A seven-game winning streak was what did it, and Coach Smith felt well satisfied with this outcome of the '40-'41 season.

Some of our future varsity stars who shone as starlets on the J. V.'s were Wickel, Griesemer, Davis, Fake, Heiner, and Shollenberger. They're heading for fame and fortune on the basketball court as they have already brought fame and fortune to the J. V.'s.

BASEBALL

Co-Coaches Smith and Rock have come through with another winner. To date, the diamond Knights have won seven straight games, which include two thrashings of county schools.

After taking two league frays from Allentown and Easton, the Raiders pounded Bethlehem's no-hit pitcher 15-6. Reading stopped Lebanon in a close one 8-7, and nipped Norristown's previously unbeaten crew 4-1 in non-league encounters. A Murderers' Row outfield of Joe Szymanski, Walt Kozlowski, and Vic Wertz has done most of the fence busting. However, a fast infield of Souders, Giles, Drexler, Smith, and Missbach has done its share of slugging. Bob Ervin is the ace of the mound corps with Joe Shannon, Earl Geiss, and Johnny Roslin turning in encouraging performances. As we go to press, our Knights lead the conference, and if they should win, Reading will become the first team to snare the toga 3 consecutive years.

TRACK

A smart-looking R. H. S. track team took to the cinders this year to make a name for itself. Starting with a bang, the mile relay team led all opposition until the last 5 yards, when a record-breaking quarter mile by Altoona's anchor man beat them out. Coyle, Scott, Crawford, and Dierolf made one of the best showings of our team in 30 years, and are to be commended. The two May brothers, Keith and Jake, are vaulting into the air like professionals. Coach Jacobs realizes that the team was weakened with the lack of weight men, and thus an early season defeat at the hands of Bethlehem could not be avoided. However, Coach Jacobs has confidence in his team and so do we all; so go to it, boys!

A well-rounded team with such runners as Resline, Swayne, Dierolf, Zientek, Delp, Vastardis, Stoyko, and Troxelle accounted for 9 wins, one second place and 2 losses. Coach Jacobs was especially pleased with the victory that gave the Red Knights the State Championship at Penn State. A second place in the District Run poured more laurels on the Red & Black harriers as they continued on the path of victory to cop a first place at both the Regional and Conference runs. The Cross - Country team really did themselves justice and the '41 campaign will not soon be forgotten.

Coach Leroy Jones piloted a spirited Red and Black soccer team to a successful season with only 2 losses and 2 ties to mar its record. Along with other honors, goes that of being the only team in six years to tie Bethlehem's undefeated State Champions. Stellar performances by Bob Ervin, Jimmy Bunn, Bob Harbach, George Kennedy, and Joe Shannon, brought the Red Knights through their season in royal style with seven victories to their credit. Their defeat of Hellertown to the tune of 2-1 helped climax the high school soccer careers of these boys and also shed more glory on Reading High.

After taking Kutztown in stride, the divot diggers were upset by Lebanon. Hershey's defending champs caught the Knights on the rebound and were promptly upset 12-6. As we go to press we are in a 3-way tie with the hopes of breaking through to lead the league this year. Good luck, Coach Brucher, for you and your fine team.

CHEERLEADERS

We've got the pep! We've got the steam! And those cheerleaders certainly did show it. They flashed all through our football and basketball season and added more prestige and spirit to our famous Reading High teams. Yes, they helped cheer for those teams that won the Central P.I.A.A. Basketball Championship, those teams that set up the greatest football record of victories since 1913.

Besides those high spots in 1940-41 sports, this year's crop of seniors will long be able to brag about their soccer team that tied Bethlehem and beat Hellertown, their baseball team that is heading for championship, the golf team that upset last year's championship team, Hershey, a top-notch tennis team that has added four straight matches to R. H. S.'s string of 21 consecutive victories, a second place Penn Relay team, a star studded table tennis team that held down a tough third place, and our State Championship cross country team. To these great athletes Reading High owes its biggest jackpot year in the school history.

For keeping alive and responsive the enthusiasm of the student body in the contests which resulted in this excellent record, the thanks of the whole school goes to the cheerleaders.

SPEEDBALL

This year a new sport called Speedball was introduced to the girls to take the place of the regular soccer season sports. In the beginning of the season, fifty-seven girls registered for this after-school sport. At the first few practices, skills, techniques and tricks in handling the ball were taught to the girls, after which the rules and regulations of the game had to be mastered so that practice games could be played.

The girls elected Pat Stamm as manager and Irene Cichowicz as assistant manager. Shirley Haggerty, Pauline Knauer, and Catherine Bixler were chosen as captains of the twelfth, eleventh, and tenth grade teams respectively.

The preliminary league got away to a good start on November 6, and after the three games were completed the twelfth grade team held top position, having won two games and lost none. Then there was one practice game before the final league got under way. The results of the final league were the same as they had been in the preliminary league. The eleventh and tenth grades finished second and third respectively.

Twenty-seven girls will receive their well-earned points.

FIELD HOCKEY

With the brisk, stimulating weather of fall came the clicking of sticks and the lusty shouts of forty-six girls who turned out for another exciting hockey season.

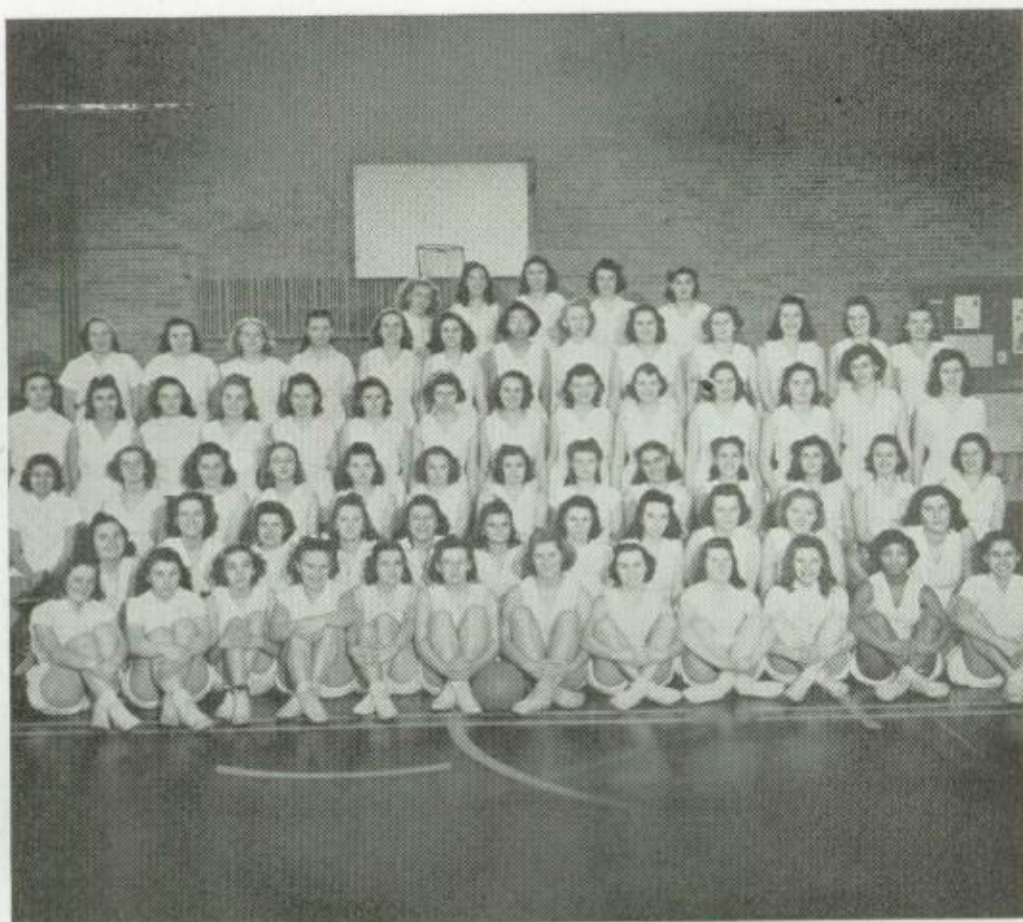

The girls elected Ladora Einsel manager of the hockey league and Virginia Young assistant manager. Because the number was not sufficient to permit the formation of class teams, two teams were organized with girls from various classes on each. The teams were evenly balanced with players of various calibres. Ladora Einsel was selected captain of the Red team, Virginia Young of the Black team.

In the league, the Black team rose as victors, winning two of the three games played. All the girls showed wonderful sportsmanship and interest in the games and seemed reluctant to have another hockey season come to an end.

The elimination tournament followed the round-robin, declaring Pat Stamm as champion and Ruth Gaul as runner-up. Many of the girls who had never played this exciting game before, turned out to be excellent players at the close of the season. For true fun and a fascinating game, try badminton.

As we near Mount Rushmore, we see before us the imposing view of four leaders of our country—Washington, Lincoln, Jefferson, and Roosevelt. What comes to our minds? Naturally we think of our leaders in high school—the faculty. Just as the statesmen sculptured on the mountain led our nation through various early stages of its growth, so have our teachers guided us, students, through the early part of our road of life.

Roads have indeed had a very definite influence in shaping the destinies of individuals, communities, and nations. We note the fact that as seniors you are traveling from the Statue of Liberty to the Golden Gate. Sometimes we wonder whether you really enjoy the scenery along the road as we did. We had time to admire the wonders of nature as old Dobbin carried us along on the rather poorly built road-bed. By the time you really sight a beauty spot in town or country you have gone miles beyond it.

From the Statue of Liberty to the Golden Gate is a great distance. You are assuming that you are traveling that distance in your senior year. How significant the starting point! How fitting the goal! We are greatly interested in knowing the obstructions you may encounter on your journey. But we are more interested in the heights to which you will rise in your efforts to overcome all obstructions, and continue to travel on to your goal—the Golden Gate.

From the Statue of Liberty to the Golden Gate! The Bill of Rights! Freedom of Speech! Individual initiative! The franchise! Collective bargaining! Government by law! Free assembly! Trial by jury! These you must protect if the liberty with which you started is to be maintained until you reach the Golden Gate through which you view your setting sun.

V. P. WILLIAM L. FINK

Several years ago, while we were touring the West, a member of our party reminded me of the fact that we were travelling again a part of the old Oregon Trail.

At once, my thoughts reverted to the past. Forgotten were the broad, smooth highways and the comfortable travelling conditions of the present century. Imagination carried me back and set me down among those hardy pioneers who, where they found no road, made one.

I visioned the journey westward. I re-lived the breaking of ties with home and kindred; I saw frontiersmen setting forth bravely with face turned triumphantly toward a great unknown fraught with high hope and daring adventure. There were trials on the way, hardship, suffering, loss. But burdens were lightened by songs of cheer on the lips of the travellers, by admirable deeds of courage and sacrifice, and by the sharing of meagre supplies with less fortunate comrades.

Travellers of 1941: where you find no road, make one; and in the making, learn to ease the burdens and lighten the hearts of fellow travellers on the way. May you find abundant satisfaction at the end of the trail.

WILLIAM L. FINK.

V. P. FLORENCE B. BEITENMAN

TO THE CLASS OF 1941 GREETINGS

"The little Road says, Go,
And the little House says, Stay!
And O, it's bonny here at home,
But I must go away.

"The little Road, like me,
Would seek, and turn, and know;
And forth I must, to learn the things
The little Road would show!"

For you, O Eager Class of 1941,
The little Road says only Go.
Like your mothers and fathers for generations past,

You must naturally "seek and turn, to learn the things

The little Road would show."

That little road will join others on its way,
A way that, strangely enough, has always faced the West.

It may often be rough, blocked with obstacles;
Again it may be almost monotonously smooth.
For some of you the road may be short and uneventful;

For others it may stretch on and on, rising up into the heights.

Whatever life may bring you, may you with the ancient Ulysses,

Greatest of old-time travellers, say ever:

"That which we are, we are;
One equal temper of heroic hearts,
Made weak by time and fate, but strong in will
To strive, to seek, to find, and not to yield."

FEATURES

Here comes the showboat!—and here come the features. The huge steamboats on the Mississippi River were noted for their gay colors, vivid activities, and great variety of amusements. Strictly aside from books, the feature section of our year-book contains the aggregate of the staff's ingenuity in which it attempts to portray the seniors in their various moods and tempos.

1941 CLASS SONG

Words and Music by Eleanor Frezeman

We're leav-ing, class of for-ty one, a school we all hold dear. But

The first system of musical notation for the song. It consists of a treble and bass staff joined by a brace. The key signature has one flat (B-flat) and the time signature is common time (C). The melody is written in the treble staff, and the accompaniment is in the bass staff. The lyrics are written below the treble staff.

The fourth system of musical notation, which is the final line on the page. It concludes the melody and accompaniment. The lyrics conclude below the treble staff.

SENIOR ASSEMBLY

Even the teachers stood up on their chairs and cheered when the seniors presented their class production, "Glamour In the Poconos" — a farce on teachers at a summer resort. With the loveliest of the lovelies in the leading girls roles, it was impossible for the play to be forgotten for a long time. The male leads certainly were a pleasant surprise.

The whole show went over with a kick when the conga chain started struttin' its stuff. Music, dancing, singing, and laughs all helped to make this production stand out in a day we are all sure to remember.

The curtain fell on the usual happy ending—with everyone getting her man.

The entire production was under the able direction of Mr. Willard H. Mohn; Mr. Walker supervised the singing; Richard Hilbert arranged the orchestrations and conducted the music; Marion Mentzer and Virginia Banks directed the dancing.

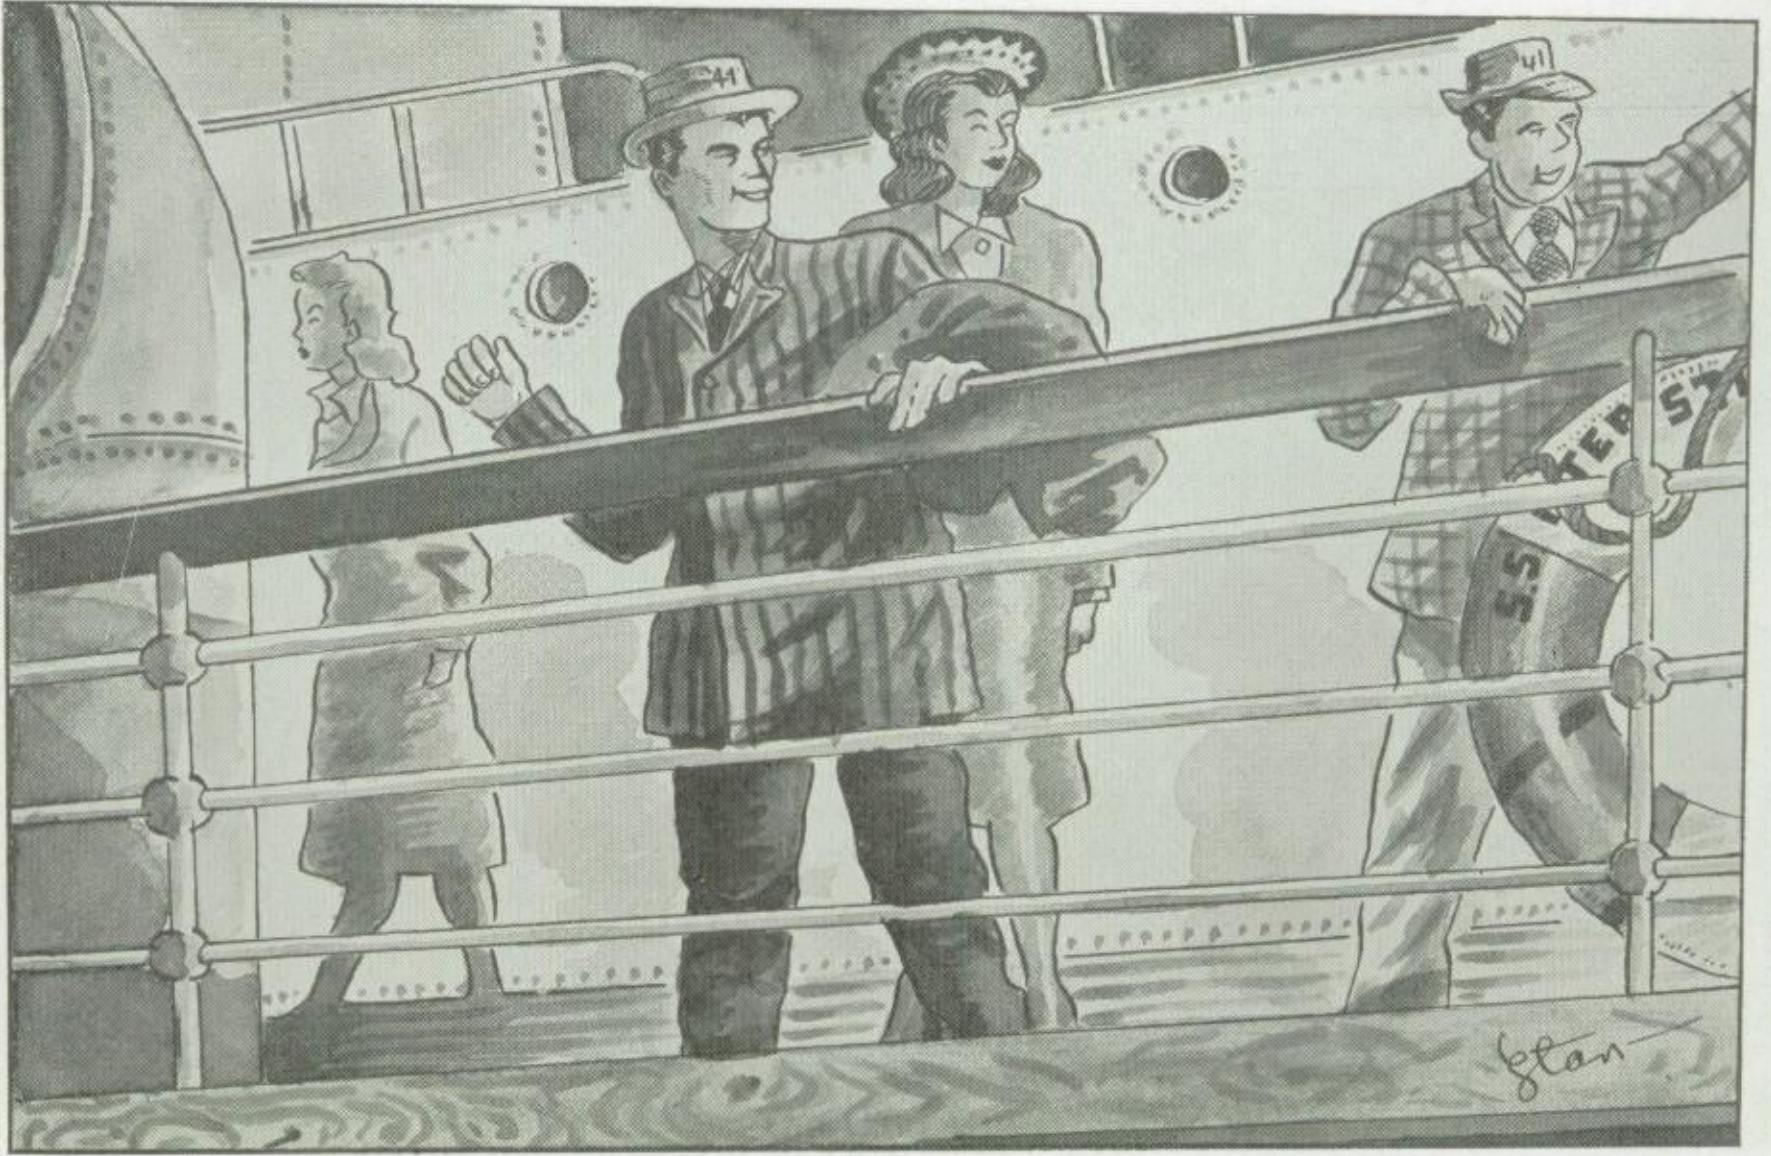

PAGEANT

This year, as has been our custom for the past eleven years, the Senior Class presented a pageant. It was written by a special pageant-writing class and all the twelfth grade students participated in it.

This year's pageant, "American Quest," told the story of the various stages in the development of America by the lives of five famous Americans. These people are Patrick Henry, telling of the organizing of our government; Johnny Appleseed, expressing the building up of the West; Louisa May Alcott, showing the entrance of women in activities outside of the home; John Wanamaker, depicting the beginning of big retail business; and Will Rogers telling our ideas for the future. Special activities accompanied each episode.

SENIOR CLASS TRIP

Amid shouts of "Where's my lunch" and "Boy, am I tired," hundreds of our seniors hopped on the train on May 31, at 6:00 and left for the long awaited class trip. It was great fun exploring the ins and outs of the S. S. Peter Stuyvesant—of course, most of us being in more things than the crew could stand. But everyone was very patient and saw to it that we all had a good time.

Besides dancing, singing, eating, and talking, we tried to give a return engagement of "Glamour In the Poconos." The show was stopped when everyone went Cuban on us and entered the conga chain.

We cruised around the New York Harbor for a while and finally sailed up the Hudson. We all felt like saboteurs and fifth columnists the way we were watched when we reached West Point. But the place was beautiful and the cadets—oh!

After several casualties—but no corpses—a few hundred seniors returned to Reading, tired but happy, after a very exciting day.

PROM

Joy of joys! At last — May 16 and the nineteen forty-one Senior Prom. With the Army and Navy theme in full dress, we felt very patriotic.

Our girls looked lovely and the young men so-o handsome in those white flannels.

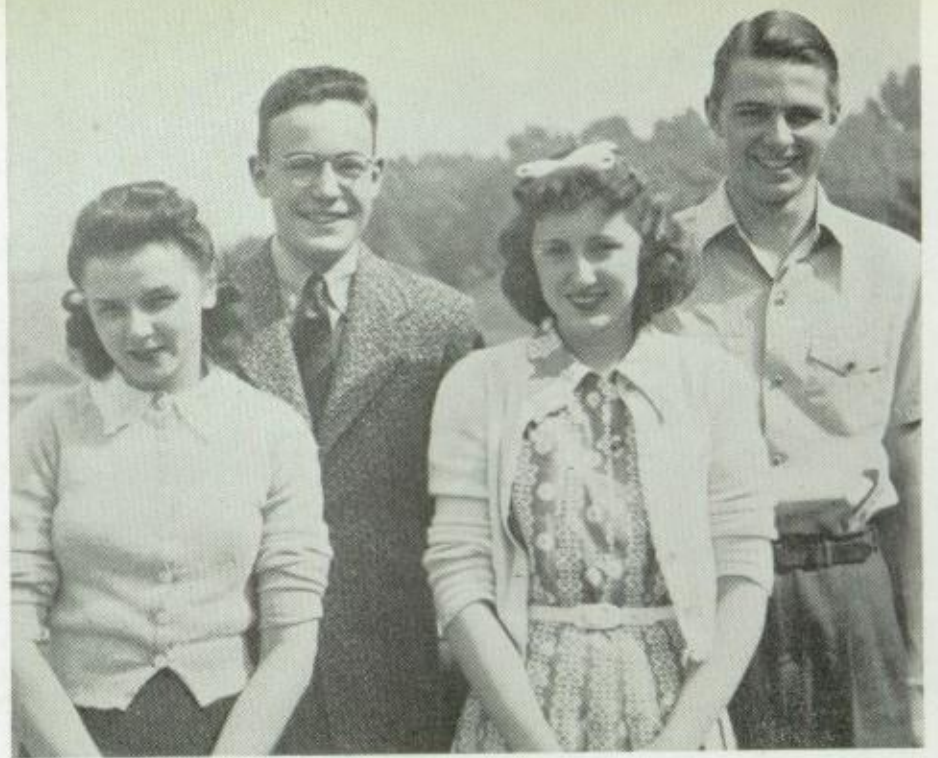

Everything was perfect—the flowers, the punch, the partner, the music. Yes, the orchestras of Jack Heath and Steve Gallas were very soothing.

Happiness, indeed, reigned at our 'Rendezvous In Arms,' and it was an evening thoroughly enjoyed by all.
